CORAM : R.M. BORDE &
A.I.S. CHEEMA, JJ.

DATED : 22nd November, 2013.

1. This writ petition is filed seeking compassionate appointment with Agricultural Produce Market Committee, Latur. According to petitioner, his father was in employment with the A.P.M.C. and died in the year 1987. Considering the lapse of time of more than 27 years, the request made in the petition does not deserve consideration in the light of judgment of the Supreme Court in the case of Umesh Kumar Nagpal Vs. State of Haryana & others etc., reported in [(1994) 4 SCC 138], appointment on compassion cannot be claimed as a matter of right. The whole object of granting compassionate employment is to enable the family to tide over the sudden crisis. The object is not to give a member of such family a post much less a post for post held by the deceased. The writ petition is devoid of substance. Hence, the same is dismissed.
